

Kravchenko I.S. Pressing questions of completing of subdivisions of National Police of Ukraine. In the modern terms of development of the new law-enforcement system in Ukraine of selection of shots on positions of policemen the special value is given. The necessity of decision of problems of completing of subdivisions of the National Police is determined in the strategic documents of public policy. At the same time there is an urgent necessity of introduction of new approach to completing of subdivisions of the National Police, creation of the proper normative base that answered the requirements of contemporaneity.

The aim of writing of this scientific article is a decision of problems of completing of subdivisions of the National Police of Ukraine and making of suggestions in relation to their decision.

Completing of subdivisions of the National Police is activity of the authorized public servants of bodies (establishments) of police from planning, selection and assigning for positions of policemen, according to the nomenclature of positions, that is asserted by the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Ukraine, in the order of competition on service to the police and/or employment of vacant position, attestation or assigning for positions of students (listeners) of higher educational establishments with the specific terms of studies, that carries out preparation policeman, for providing the state necessary amount skilled employee and implementation task National Police of Ukraine.

We are distinguish such problems of completing of subdivisions of the National Police:

1) the premature and off-grades election of candidates on vacant positions in subdivisions of patrol police in 2015 entailed the outflow of shots and lack of workers of subdivisions in 2017;

2) in text of law and other normatively-legal acts it is explained not enough a legislator, in what completing of subdivisions of the National police and ambiguously defined notions "selection on position", "assigning consists for position of policeman", "manning table (state)", "permanent position", "completing in order of promotion";

3) vaguenesses of questionare in relation to reformation of higher educational establishments with the specific terms of studies, that carry out preparation of policemen, and their role in completing of subdivisions of the National Police.

Drawn conclusion, that staffing is a difficult process, that must carry complex character and built on conception in accordance with that the workers of subdivisions of the National Police are examined, as its basic resource.

Consider realization of transparent competitions priority directions of overcoming of existent problems of completing of subdivisions of the National Police on vacant positions, reformation of the system of constabulary education, acceptance of the Typical order of completing of subdivisions of the National Police, in that it follows to define a concept, object, subject, maintenance, to the order of completing, its organization and planning.
