

Kobko Ye. V. The system of ensuring national security of Ukraine: components and character of their realization in modern conditions. A thorough analysis of the state of national security in Ukraine, its system, main tasks and structural elements was carried out. The state of ensuring national security of Ukraine in the context of current events in the state was analysed.

Any state, and Ukraine is no exception, can not simultaneously cover the entire complex of national security issues and start solving them. There are quite obvious restrictions on the means and resources at its disposal, the ways of their application. Hence the need to identify priority national interests and objectives that need to be clarified in the process of developing a national security policy.

The system of ensuring national security has its components, which include: protection of state sovereignty and territorial integrity; guaranteeing the constitutional order; creation of conditions for political and economic independence; ensuring of public order; fight against crime etc.

It was noted that the main bodies that ensure the national security of the state are the Armed Forces of the countries and all state power structures which have the main task assigned to them by the state, to ensure the highest possible level of protection of national interests.
