

SUMMARY

Uvarov V. G. Some aspects of the functioning of the General Inspection of Prosecutor's General Office of Ukraine. The author has analyzed some aspects of the functioning the General Inspectorate Prosecutor General's Office of Ukraine. Unlike the Specialized Anti-Corruption Prosecutor's Office and the Military Prosecutor's Offices, the status of the General Inspectorate is practically not disclosed in the content of the Law of Ukraine «On the Prosecutor's Office». Attention paid on the importance of the functions of the General Inspectorate units. The General Inspectorate not only takes care of issues related to participation in the prosecution of corruption cases committed by officials of the Prosecutor's Office, but also performs a number of preventive and organizational functions aimed primarily at preventing the facts of unlawful behavior by Ukrainian prosecutors. Moreover, relevant functions are ensured at all levels of legal responsibility – from disciplinary to criminal.

The foreign experience of the activity of internal security units in the prosecutor's offices is analyzed. The positive experience of the some foreign countries indicates the existence of units that are responsible for ensuring internal security and bringing to justice the offenses committed by prosecutors, and with them other categories of persons that performing public functions.

The author has formulated the conclusions and proposals aimed at improving the activities of the General Inspectorate Prosecutor General's Office of Ukraine, namely:

- 1) to establish in the current legislation tasks, functions and system of the General Inspectorate units as an integral part of the Prosecutor General's Office of Ukraine.
- 2) to clearly define the jurisdiction of the General Inspectorate of the GPOU, the principles and features of its interaction with other law-enforcement agencies operating in Ukraine.
- 3) to provide sufficient guarantees for the independence of the professional activities of the General Inspection officials of the GPOU.
