

SUMMARY

Halunko V.M. Administrative-legal regulation the community police officers' activities in Ukraine. The article reviews the administrative and legal adjustment of the activity of the community police officers as a new meaning for our state. In order to raise citizens' confidence in Ukraine has begun a project called "The Community Police Officers". So the police departments will provide a new police services to the population, because Ukrainian citizens are dissatisfied with the level of their public protection, as well as the provision of administrative services by all national police and individual services. as have been told in numerous sociological surveys.

Nowadays, there is no single approach to the understanding of administrative and legal regulation. Some scholars are considering in the narrow sense of this question, but others in the broad sense. It was established that the problems of reforming and administrative regulation of community police officers were paid attention before, but such a reformation became possible only now. If you take the legal basis for their work, you can see that the most applicable standard acts that are best suited and widely used by the National Police of Ukraine. It is determined that the administrative and legal regulation of the community police officers in Ukraine provides for a certain complex of application of administrative and legal norms in public relations through the specific public functions of community police officers.

They became subjects of public administration by establishing a set of legal means, administrative norms, their legal consolidation, protection and development in order to ensure the rights and liberties of a person, liberties and public legitimate interests of individuals and entities, normal functioning of the civil society and state which are provided by police officers in the local community.

Keywords: police officers, community, district inspectors, administrative-legal regulation, interaction.