

SUMMARY

Makushev P. V. Administrative and legal status of the State Executive Service: the problems of improvement The article deals with comprehensive reviewing of the State Executive Service in Ukraine. The historical and social determinants of the State Executive Service in Ukraine, the main stages of formation of legal principles of its activity have been established and characterized. The features of the national model of the State Executive Service in Ukraine in the system of public authority have been defined and characterized in the historical retrospective. The place, role and basic principles of enforcement of decisions in the activity of the State Executive Service in Ukraine have been determined. The peculiarities of foreign experience of legal regulation of the activities of representatives of government bodies in the enforcement proceedings have been researched.

The system and structure of the state executive service in the historical retrospective and in the modern period have been outlined. The principles, functions and powers of the State Executive Service in Ukraine were determined. The functional features of the implementation of management activities of the bodies of the State Executive Service in Ukraine have been defined. The content of the administrative and legal status of a state executor in the conditions of a mixed system of execution of decisions has been revealed. The content and features of information support of the activity of the State Executive Service in Ukraine have been studied.

The legal principles of interaction between the State Executive Service in Ukraine and the subjects of public and private law have been determined. The theoretical and legal approaches to the definition of the essence of control over the activities of bodies of the State Executive Service in Ukraine and its employees have been allocated.

The author has concluded that the implementation of the State Executive Service Development Concept should ensure that the conditions of work of state executives are brought into line with international and European standards; to increase the level of efficiency of State Executive Service activity in Ukraine and the prestige of the work of state executors; improve the quality of enforcement proceedings; to increase the level of public confidence in the State Executive Service of Ukraine.

Keywords: administrative and legal status, executive proceeding, governance, state executor, state executive service, public servant, private executor.