

Dmytro H. Kaznachejev, Olena M. Lopayeva. Ways of improvement military-combat activity of law enforcement units in Ukraine. The article analyzes the features of service and combat activities of law enforcement forces in Ukraine, mistakes were made during the professional training of personnel. The concept of essence and maintenance of service and combat activity of law enforcement agencies depending on their specificity is given.

The description of the directions of improvement of service and combat activity of law enforcement forces in Ukraine is carried out, the substantiation of advantages and disadvantages of these directions in modern conditions is given. Emphasis was placed on improving the service and combat activities of law enforcement forces in Ukraine through the wider application of international regulations and sources of international law, especially those UN General Assembly resolutions on the conduct of law enforcement officials and the basic principles of force and firearms by officials. to maintain law and order, which may vary depending on the national legal system. An analysis of violations of the law committed in the performance of certain combat missions, which mostly occur in cases where law enforcement officers and servicemen in the performance of urgent actions are guided only by the early detection or cessation of offenses, detention or delivery of offenders, restoration of violations. citizens, elimination (minimization) of the consequences of a certain emergency situation.

It is noted that in most cases illegal actions are manifested in unreasonable restrictions on the rights and freedoms of citizens, unjustified inspections, detentions and searches, biased, untimely or incomplete information about the results of measures taken, and sometimes - drawing up documents with inaccurate data and falsification of evidence. In view of this, it is necessary to develop theoretical and practical problems of combat training in the framework of the action plan for the implementation of the concept of law enforcement, which provides for the improvement of the existing training system. Fundamentally new requirements for the quality of personnel training require a revision of the existing model of service and combat training in educational institutions with specific training conditions.

Keywords: military-combat activity, law enforcement, rule of law, personnel training, control, supervision.