

Liliya V. Mezhevska, Valeriya V. Vasylchenko. The lawyer's role as a representative in the economic procedure.

The participation of a lawyer is a fundamental component of the trial. After all, there are many people who need qualified legal assistance, primarily to protect their rights and interests.

However, the current legislation of Ukraine regulates the legal relations of procedural representation in different ways, especially with regard to the provision of legal assistance and the performance of functions in court by a lawyer.

This question requires a new comprehensive study, taking into account the peculiarities of the legal position of a lawyer in economic and procedural legal relations as their subject and on its basis the following provision: taking into account the special role of a lawyer as a person providing legal assistance. requires a separate regulatory regulation.

Introduction of norms in the legislation that will be more in line with the direction of strengthening the protection of the rights and legitimate interests of participants in commercial proceedings during the proceedings in the commercial court, provided that their interests are represented by a lawyer. Thus, we can conclude that the specifics of the lawyer in the commercial process is determined by the specifics of the commercial proceedings.

Keywords: lawyer, representative, commercial court, legal aid, legislation of Ukraine