

Yernar N. Begaliyev. About the perspectivity or insufficiency of introducing the institute of chipping the population. This article is devoted to an urgent problem – the issues of feasibility, legality and expediency of population chipping. The author provides a deep and comprehensive analysis of the positive and negative sides of the problem under consideration, using the example of foreign countries in which there is a studied practice. The article proposes a scientific polemic of published works on the problem of microchips, offers its own point of view and draws its own conclusions. The key point of this article is, developed on the basis of research, SWOT analysis, which includes the strengths and weak-nesses of the problem under study. In conclusion, the author draws his own conclusions and makes pro-posals aimed at committing the crimes, which may have theoretical and / or practical value. The article is intended for persons interested in the forensic technique, forensic characteristics of crimes, methods of investigation of certain types (groups) of crimes, as well as for a wide range of readers.

Keywords: sensor, label, portal, radio frequency identification, scanner, chip.